Free screening of official ABC Anzac Albany DVD

Albany's new Lotterywest-supported Town Square will be the venue for a free, non-ticketed screening of the footage from the Anzac Albany events.

Content from the official ABC DVD entitled Anzac Centenary: Albany Convoy Commemorative Event will be shown under the stars on a large screen Wednesday 17 December.

Members of the community are encouraged to bring a low chair or blanket and enjoy a picnic while watching footage from the ABC's national broadcast of the Anzac Albany events.

Limited numbers of comfortable outdoor chairs will be available to Albany Public Library members to hire for $5. Please phone 9841 9390 to reserve one of these chairs.

Local musician Geoff Waldeck will perform at 6pm before the screening at 7:30pm. Refreshments will be available.

Please note this event is weather dependant and may be cancelled if it is too wet/windy.

The City of Albany has acquired a large portable screen intended to be used for public screenings in the Town Square and other locations.
