First free 'Summer Movies in the Square' screening this weekend

The first in a series of free outdoor movies as part of the City of Albany's Summer Movies in the Square will be screened this weekend.

Family friendly film How to Train Your Dragon 2 will screen at 7:30pm this Saturday 21 February, following a live performance from local musician Geoff Waldeck at 6pm.

Summer Movies in the Square is a series of three free PG-rated films to be screened at Albany Town Square during February and March. The program also includes Red Dog on Saturday 14 March and Last Paradise on Saturday 21 March.

All films are free. For more information please follow City of Albany Events on Facebook.
