Unique film Last Paradise to screen this weekend

- This Saturday 21 March, part of the free Summer Movies in the Square
- Features 45 years of stunning original footage

Following on from the highly popular screening of How to Train Your Dragon 2, the City of Albany's free Summer Movies in the Square continues with Last Paradise this Saturday 21 March.

Last Paradise is a unique and exciting film which comprises 45 years' worth of stunning footage of the original extreme sports pioneers.

The film by physicist/filmmaker Clive Neeson is based on the evolution of extreme sports and the eternal quest for adventure and paradise.

The 45 years of footage was restored by director Peter Jackson's team who discovered it during a technical test when making "Lord of the Rings" and were so amazed by it they suggested it be made into a film.*

Moondog J will be providing live music from 6pm and Albany Boardriders will be running a food stall with all proceeds to Albany Boardriders.

The City of Albany advises the outdoor screening is dependent on weather. For the latest updates please follow City of Albany Events on Facebook and join the Last Paradise Facebook event.
