Results of Albany Council Elections 2015

The results of the Albany Council elections were announced on the weekend. The incumbent Mayor, Dennis Wellington will continue to lead Council along with five new and continuing representatives from the Albany community.

The City of Albany Election Results 17 October 2015:

MAYOR
Dennis Wellington

BREAKSEA WARD
Paul Terry

KALGAN WARD
Bill Hollingworth

VANCOUVER WARD
John Shanhun

WEST WARD
Sandie Smith

YAKAMIA WARD
Anthony Moir

FREDERICKSTOWN WARD
Greg Stocks

Mayor Dennis Wellington thanked all candidates for their nominations saying this election was very competitive with 21 candidates seeking a seat on Council. The high number of candidates reflect a healthy and active interest in our role in governing the city.

“I would like to congratulate all candidates who gained a seat on Council, and thank those who nominated for a seat but were unsuccessful at this time. Your interest and effort is commended and appreciated, and we look forward to your ongoing support.

“To our retiring Councillors, I would like to express my sincere gratitude for your tireless contribution to Council in representing your community. Your dedication and commitment to the role has been greatly valued and Council wishes you well in the future,” said Mayor Dennis Wellington.

New Councillors will make their Declaration before Superintendent Dominic Wood from the Great Southern Police, at the next Ordinary Council Meeting on 27 October. Council will also elect the Deputy Mayor at this meeting.
