

Media release

Office: 102 North Road, Yakamia
Postal: PO Box 484, ALBANY WA 6331
Phone: (08) 9841 9333
Fax: (08) 9841 4099
Record No: REL042/MR15114607

Date Issued: 23 November 2015

Authorised by: Dennis Wellington

MAD-D Youth Event

The Albany Leisure & Aquatic Centre (ALAC) has another Mad-D event scheduled to run on Saturday 19 December 2015.

The 'MAD-D' night will include roller skating, water slide and the inflatable along with DJ and music.

Tickets are available for $5.00 each. Pre-sale for tickets will be available from 1 December 2015.

Transport home is available to those living within the town limits. Bookings for bus transport can be made before and on the night. Seats on bus are limited.

Patrons are allowed to bring their own skates, ripsticks and scooters.

This event will run from 6pm-8pm and are open to children aged 10-17 years. Doors will not open before 6pm.

For any information re bus, tickets or activities, please contact Etienne Vorster at 9844 2250.

ALAC will be holding a full Centre open day on Saturday, 19 December from 12pm – 5pm. For one day only, get FREE access to the gym, pools, AND group fitness!

Bring the kids for fun, games and water inflatables including bumper boats and Zorb rollers.

Come and try out the sports on offer at ALAC including basketball, netball, volleyball and more. Try out the new gym equipment, get a free assessment and find a membership options to suit you.

Plus there will be exclusive membership offers and giveaways on the day.

END