Youth to break out dance moves

Underage youth will be able to carve up the dance floor when a local nightclub hosts a MAD Youth Event next weekend.

The underage nightclub has been organised in response to numerous requests from young people and will be the final event in the MAD Youth Event series.

It will be held in Rumours Nightclub at 338 Middleton Loop on Saturday, March 12 from 7pm to 10pm. The club will be delicensed for the night and feature DJ Chetz of Perth Metropolis and Under 18 Project fame.

The underage nightclub is open to young people aged 14-17 who will be treated to a great night of music, mocktails and a nightclub experience minus the alcohol.

Tickets are only $5 and available from Albany PCYC.

A detailed FAQ has been developed to address any questions or concerns from parents and can be found at the City of Albany website <http://www.albany.wa.gov.au/your-community/youth-services/>.

Attendees will have access to a free bus home for those within town limits, however seats are limited and bookings are essential. To make a bus booking, contact the City's Senior Community Development Officer Tammy Flett on 9841 9294.

If you have any queries or questions, call the City of Albany on 9841 9294.

The event is proudly supported by WA Police and the City of Albany.
