

September Long Weekend

There is plenty to do in Albany this long weekend!
Keep this guide handy.

Southern Peaks

Southern MTB • Saturday 24 September • 9am Start

New for 2016, the Southern Peaks is a 50km/30km mass participation, point to point race, setting off near Maitraya with the finish line at Oranje Tractor Winery. You can see a full course map at www.southernmtb.com.au

Jump Competition

Southern MTB • Saturday 24 September • From 7pm

The Jump Comp is a trick competition located in the Town Centre. This will be open for experienced riders to enter and will provide an exciting performance for spectators. You can see more information including road closures at www.southernmtb.com.au

Urban Downhill

Southern MTB • Sunday 25 September • From 10am

Created in 2014, the Urban Downhill Race is the only Urban downhill in the whole of Australia! This daring challenge will see professionals tackle Albany's landscapes and City Centre. You can see a full course map & road closures at www.southernmtb.com.au

Kids Urban

Southern MTB • Saturday 24 September • From 3pm

The Albany Mountain Bike Club will be holding a Kids Participation Race, for kids aged 5 - 12. This is purely a fun, have-a-go style race!

Festival Village

Southern MTB • 23-25 September

The Southern MTB Festival Village will be in the heart of Albany and will be a centre point with food stalls, a bar, competitor chill out area, free wifi and charging stations. Come along to find out information, event timings and share the experience with your friends.

Albany Show & Shine

Centennial Park East • 24 & 25 September • 10am - 3pm

Great Southern Street Machine Association presents the 20th Anniversary of the Albany Show & Shine. With an Eyre Park Supercruise, Burn-Out Comp at Attwell Park and full car display on Sunday.

Angel Flight Open Day
