

Nomination Form

Albany Tourism Marketing Advisory Committee

The City of Albany is seeking nominations from interested individuals to participate as voluntary members on the Albany Tourism Marketing Advisory Committee.

As at 16 June 2008, the committee consisted of three Councillors (Cr Chris Morris, Cr John Walker and Cr Gordon Kidman) and two industry/community representatives (Gaynor Clarke and Simon Shuttleworth). The role of the committee is to make recommendations to the Council on matters pertaining to the strategic marketing of Albany as a tourism destination.

Nominations for two vacant industry/community positions are open until 5pm on 4 July 2008 and should be prepared either by completing this form or by writing a letter stating your interest in the committee.
