City of Albany hosts Sk8, Scooter and BMX Competition

Due to popular demand, the City of Albany will once again run a Sk8, Scooter and BMX Competition at the Albany Sk8 and BMX Park.

The competition will take place next Wednesday January 29 under lights, with registrations open from 5pm and the competition commencing at 5.30pm.

Albany PCYC will be open for the duration of the competition where light refreshments will be available.

Helmets must be worn by all competitors. A small selection of helmets will be available for loan.

Registration forms are available from competition sponsors, Albany PCYC and the City of Albany's website:

<http://www.albany.wa.gov.au/your-community/youth-services/sk8-bmx-zone>.

Please contact Senior Community Development Officer Tammy Flett with questions or queries at 9841 9294.

The competition is sponsored by Bob's Bikes and Albany Surf and Skate.
