Plain Language and Accessible Social Media

Wednesday, 22nd April 2026 – 9.30am to 12.30pm

Hilton Garden Inn
3 Toll Place, Albany, WA 6330

Centre for Accessibility Australia is offering a FREE workshop to assist businesses, government organisations and individuals to implement digital accessibility in their workplace and environment.

Plain Language Essentials

Learn how to write in plain language, increasing clarity and reach. We will guide you through practical tips and best practices to simplify your communication, making it more accessible and effective.

Accessible Social Media

Delve into the world of accessible social media, where you'll discover how to craft engaging posts that include:
• Alt text for visual accessibility
• Accessible hashtags
• And more!

In this FREE workshop you'll gain an understanding of:
• Practical accessibility techniques – including hands-on accessibility activity

• Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) standards and overview

• Legal compliance

• Plain language guidance

• The future outlook for accessibility with the emergence of AI

Places are limited. Book now!

This workshop is part of a systemic advocacy WA grant provided by the Department of Communities.
