ART EXHIBITIONS

Southern Art & Craft Trail & Other Artists

“Little Waders” by Artist Viv Lloyd

Viv’s works display compositions in different shapes, formats and framing, from realism to abstract. Using limited brush strokes, line and palette and a combination of mediums, mainly watercolour, acrylic and Indian ink.

“Funky Feathers” by Artist Ulla Zettergren

This exhibition by Ulla Zettergren displays her artwork of wooden birds with textile plumage, prints of whimsical humans & animals on handmade paper and cards.

“For the Love of Birds” by Photographer Georgina Steytler

Georgina Steytler, one of Australia’s most gifted wildlife photographers, is passionate about birds and conservation. In this exhibition, her images portray birds as individuals, each with a character of its own, an intelligence and beauty to be admired, a mystery to be solved, a skill to be envied and each with a unique, and deserved, place in this world.

“Accidental Rugmaker” by Artist Kira Mead

Kira Mead repurposes old woollen Australian blankets, including from the Albany Woollen Mills, to create art using an old rugmaking technique called Standing Wool or Quillies. A distinctive aspect of Kira’s work are the bright colours she achieves with dying.

“Merli Art” by Artist Susan Merli

Susan Merli’s artwork shows her love of making art with humour and relatedness. Susan describes her art as a little left off-centre and a touch outsider. Her medium of choice is acrylics but also incorporates ink, pastel and crayon in her work.

25 Sep To 10 Oct at MUSEUM OF THE GREAT SOUTHERN Co-op Building & Pop-Up Galleries

DEEP LIGHT

Exhibition

Illuminating the Wrecks of Sydney and Kormoran

In this poignant exhibition, remarkable images and footage allow us to witness a tragic moment in World War Two history, preserved in a remote world of solemn loss, wondrous creatures and surprising colour.

Open 10am-4pm. Free entry

14 Aug To 17 Oct at MUSEUM OF THE GREAT SOUTHERN Eclipse Building

IN/VISIBLE LIGHT

Exhibition

An exhibition of astrophotography and radio astronomy images. Radio telescopes can see invisible radio waves, and in this exhibition, so can you. Compare stunning astrophotos taken by skilled astrophotographers to their radio telescope counterparts. Will you ever look at Jupiter the same way again?

Open 10am- 4pm. Free entry.

9 Aug To 24 Oct at MUSEUM OF THE GREAT SOUTHERN Discovery Centre

LOST IN SPACE

Discovery Centre

Little learners can play at being astronauts. If you are going into space, what do you need to take with you, where do you sleep and how do you go to the toilet when there is no gravity? Find out which animals have been sent into space and why. Learn how to launch your own rocket, carry out repairs to the spaceship and dress for a space-walk.

Open 10am-4pm. All ages. Free entry.

9 Aug To 24 Oct at MUSEUM OF THE GREAT SOUTHERN Discovery Centre

LIVING ROOM CONVERSATIONS

Town Team Albany and Museum of the Great Southern have collaborated to create and host Living Room Conversations. These short events allow the community to share and learn more about each other’s culture, community background and identity. This month’s speaker will be Maria Wanless from the Albany Asian Grocery, York St, who originates from our closest Asian neighbour, Indonesia.

2.00-3.00pm Bookings appreciated. Phone – 98414844
